

“A Day For Egypt” Initiative

Nowadays, Egypt is going through an expeditious transition in economic, political, and social aspects. The Egyptian government has done a great job in mobilizing all available resources and the most important resource is human capital. Yes, both the Ministry of Higher Education and Research (MOHE) and the Ministry of Education (MOE) are doing a great work to reform educational systems in order to build the stock of human capital our country needs.

We, the Egyptian Cultural and Educational Bureau in Washington DC (ECEB-DC) believe that Egyptian scholars and experts abroad can play a vital role in helping our nation to build its human capital. Thus, we are proud to announce the “A Day for Egypt” initiative as follows.

(1) The goal of the initiative:

The “A Day For Egypt” initiative aims to mobilize the expertise of Egyptian scholars and experts in the US and engaging them into the development’s process especially in the education.

(2) How does the initiative work?

This initiative works as follows:

Egyptian scholars and experts in the US who are planning to visit Egypt for any reason may contact ECEB-DC. Their data and requests are going to be forwarded to the MOHE to arrange the appropriate agenda for them. The following graph summarizes the steps of the “A Day For Egypt” initiative.

Embassy of The Arab Republic of Egypt
Cultural and Educational Bureau

How to participate in the “A Day For Egypt” initiative?

Step (1)

- Contact the Egyptian Cultural and Education Bureau in Washington DC at:
- E-mai: DayForEgypt@eecous.net
- Cell phone: (202) 909 - 0716

Step (2)

- Provide the following information:
- Your CV, summary of your expertise, and a proposed agenda at least 30 days before your visit to Egypt.

Step (3)

- ECEB-DC contacts the MOHE in Egypt and arrange an agenda for you.
- You will be contacted by ECEB-DC to provide you by the approved agenda of your visit.

1303 New Hampshire Ave., N.W. Washington, DC20036

Tel: (202) 296 3888 - Fax: (202) 2963891 – Email:eecous@eecous.net